

Job: Mobilisation Coordinator

Have you got what it takes to help build Christ-centred churches among all African peoples?

AIM is looking to appoint a Mobilisation Coordinator to join its European Mobilising Team which is based in Nottingham. This is a vital role with administrative, relational and spiritual dimensions. The successful candidate will be a part of our Personnel Mobilisation Team providing essential administrative and practical support in the mobilisation of long and short term missionaries.

The role includes:

- Support for missionary recruitment, selection and preparation.
- Developing and coordinating the short term programme.
- Maintenance of an active interest in Africa Inland Mission's activities
- Participation in staff prayer meetings

The successful candidate will need:

- Excellent administrative skills
- A methodical and precise approach to work
- A good communicator but with due regard for confidentiality
- To be a good team player
- A heart for mission
- Competency in Microsoft Office

Within the terms of the Employment Equality (Religion or Belief) Regulations 2003, it is a Genuine Occupational Requirement that the successful candidate agrees with and signs AIM International's Statement of Faith. In addition AIM UK has a Faith and Finance policy applying to all members of staff. The policy requires staff to actively participate in developing financial and prayerful support. Details of this policy will be made available on request.

The closing date for applications is 5pm 7th July 2017 with interviews, for those have been shortlisted, being held at the Nottingham office on the Wednesday 12th July 2017.

For more information or an application pack please contact:

Julie Bailey, Personnel Manager

AIM International, Halifax Place, Nottingham NG1 1QN

T: 0115 9838 120 • E: applications.eu@aimint.org

@aimeurope

fb.com/aimeurope

eu.aimint.org/jobs