002 - January 2017

Who are the Mwani people?

The Mwani live along the coast of northern Mozambique. Influenced by sea-faring Arab merchants centuries ago, their culture is defined through fishing and folk Islam. 'Mwani' literally means 'beach' and life is tied to the ocean. Most Mwani are very poor. Those who don't make their living through fishing do it by transporting people by sea as well as through trading, baking, and some farming. They value peace, harmony, relationships and family bonds, and they respect the elderly. However, divorce and polygamy is common and many women have been married several times, so family units are difficult to discern.

The word "Mwani" means "beach" in their language

Though fiercely Islamic, they are strongly influenced by mediums such as witchdoctors

What do they believe?

They have an awareness of God and are very aware of the supernatural world, believing in spirits and magic, and fearing demons. Though fiercely Islamic in name, their worldview is strongly influenced by the animistic world of ancestors and the use of mediums such as witchdoctors. Women are more connected to the spirit world, holding 'punge' (séances) which can last all night. Many ceremonies are tied up with protecting the rice harvest from demons.

Radio Nuru is a Christian radio station, seeking to help reach the Mwani

What is being done to reach them?

Most Mwani are illiterate in the Kimwani language and speak only a bit of Portuguese but many love to listen to 'Radio Nuru' a Christian FM radio station broadcasting in Kimwani. Various teams have gone to the Mwani to reach them with the gospel.

Give thanks:

- * For the small number of Mwani believers.
- * For Radio Nuru and the impact that it has in the districts where it is broadcast. Give thanks too for its presenters who are keen to share the gospel.
- * That the Bible has been completed in Kimwani. Pray that the Mwani would have a real hunger and thirst for the Word.

Please pray:

- * That God would open the eyes and hearts of more Mwani to the gospel. Pray that they would see the light and truth that the gospel brings.
- * That God would raise up people to go and live among the Mwani, to share the gospel with them.
- * That the Mwani believers would share the gospel with their own families and friends.
- * For the country of Mozambique, struggling with poor infrastructure that is often made worse in bad weather.
