

A prayer resource for groups, families and individuals

Hungry for Good News

There are still around 1,000 unreached people groups in Africa. How do we begin to tell people about them?

AIM have found a simple way to add a tasty dimension to your conversations and prayer time together. Gathering local recipes from four different unreached people groups in Africa, to give you a simple way to share an important message. Why not get together with family, friends or a small group and try one of these special recipes? Sign up at eu.aimint.org/hungry to get this free resource sent to your inbox.

Make some interesting food, enjoy it with others, discover more about a group of people who may never hear about Jesus and pray for them.
